Designate Yourself as a Certified MRO Seeking Clients (Upon Passing the Examination):

MROCC's online directory offers government agencies, clinics, companies, and those in need of MRO services an opportunity to locate certified medical review officers. And, while the directory lists all MROCC-certified physicians, if you wish to be specifically designated as a certified MRO seeking potential clients, please check this box:

RETEST POLICY FOR MRO RECERTIFICATION

MRO Recertification Retest Policy (after failure of examination):

Those who have failed the recertification examination may, upon timely re-application, be admitted to two re-examinations within a 12-month period for a $125 processing fee per retest. Requests for re-examination must be received in the MROCC office in a timely manner after the failed exam. Upon a third failure of the examination, a candidate must submit a new application and payment for a fourth exam opportunity.

CLAIMING CME OR MOC CREDIT

If you have not taken an MRO training course and need to meet the MROCC CME Prerequisite for taking the recertification examination you may obtain and submit the 18 CME activity found on the MROCC website at www.mrocc.org/MRO_Manual_18.pdf. The activity requires a separate fee of $170 and must be submitted along with this recertification application.

PREPARATION PRIOR TO TAKING THE EXAMINATION

It is the applicant's responsibility to properly prepare for the certification examination by utilizing the resources recommended on the MROCC web site. While the primary study tool is the materials obtained from MRO training courses, several additional study aides are provided by MROCC, including the examination blueprint, MRO competencies document, and sample test items. (www.mrocc.org/examprep.htm)

CHEATING AND CERTIFICATION REVOCATION

MROCC has well-defined and published policies regarding cheating and certification revocation. It is the applicant's responsibility to be aware of these policies and to understand them. These, and all MROCC policies, are found on the MROCC website. (www.mrocc.org/examprep.htm)

RELEASE STATEMENT (must be read, signed and returned with application)

In connection with this application, I enclose herewith the examination fee. I agree that no fee shall be refundable after the 14-day period prior to the examination unless circumstances approved by the MROCC Board preclude attending the examination. I have read and understand MROCC's policies concerning application, retesting, cheating, refunding of fees and certification revocation. If I am registering for the online examination, I have read the conditions as detailed within this application. I agree (i) to indemnify and hold harmless each and all of the members, trustees, officers, examiners and agents from and against any liability whatsoever in respect to any act or omission in connection with this application, such examination, the grades given upon such examination, and/or granting or issuance of or failure to grant or issue a certificate; and (ii) that any certificate which may be granted and issued shall be and remain the property of the Medical Review Officer Certification Council. As a candidate for certification, I am under the obligation to inform the Medical Review Officer Certification Council of any changes in material eligibility status subsequent to the submission of this application and during the period of time for which the certificate is valid.

I hereby authorize MROCC to request information from organizations referred to in this application, and to verify academic and/or clinical training deemed necessary to make a determination of my eligibility.
